

One World, Our World™ School Program

Summary of schools to date

All of 2001

% of Students who said:		Percent that balance of students
Before	After	Shift	Question asked
50.1%	52.2%	n/a	I have been made to feel bad because another kid has made fun of me for seeming different.
22.9%	25.3%	n/a	I am afraid of certain bullies at my school.
65.8%	38.6%	41.3%	You should stick by your friends NO MATTER WHAT. (Wrong definition of Friends is a risk factor for kids)
83.0%	88.5%	32.3%	If someone new came to my school, I would try to look for ways we were alike instead of different.
81.2%	87.2%	31.9%	Good leaders often bring diverse people together.
18.7%	16.7%	10.5%	Listening is not an important step toward peace.
87.7%	90.2%	20.4%	If my friend were picking on another kid, I would tell my friend to stop picking on that kid.
78.5%	84.7%	28.9%	Bad leaders put people down so they can gain power with other people.
71.7%	83.5%	41.8%	We (people) are more ALIKE than we are DIFFERENT.
25.2%	23.4%	7.0%	Telling other kids you will hurt them is the easiest way to get what you want from them. **
89.2%	90.6%	13.5%	I am willing to make friends from different groups and cultures.
8.1%	6.8%	16.6%	I think that calling kids names is okay.
89.3%	90.9%	14.1%	Talking things out with other kids is a better way of solving problems than physically fighting with them.
94.4%	95.0%	11.6%	No matter what a person looks like, ALL people have value.
88.0%	90.1%	17.4%	True friends help support their friends to be "peacemakers."
	61.2%	n/a	Which of the following countries has the MOST PEOPLE?
	81.4%	n/a	Which of the following countries gets the MOST FOOD PER PERSON?
	90.1%	n/a	The program I saw at my school helped me understand that friends should help their friends stay away from violence.
	88.2%	n/a	The program I saw at my school helped me to try harder to be sensitive to other people's feelings.
	85.0%	n/a	The program I saw at school helped me think more about how the choices I make influence my friends.

 Surveys in 2002 change wording from "easiest" to "best"